

Day 2

Session	Venue	Venue	Venue	Venue	Venue
	Lecture Theatre, Room 122 (Old Arts)	Room 156 (West Arts)	Room 256 (West Arts)	Room 456 (West Arts)	Room 204 (Old Arts)
9.00 - 10.30 Panel/sessions: Please take 10-12 minutes for presentations, if there are five panellists; and 15 min if four panellists	Roundtable: Publish or Perish: navigating the travails of academic publishing	Climate Change, Displacement and Development	Development, Migrants and Diasporas	Addressing Human Insecurities in the African Context	Politics of Development across rural and urban spaces
	Roundtable Convenor and Presenter, Patrick Kilby (ANU), Editor in Chief, Development in Practice .	Panel Chair: Brooke Wilmsen (La Trobe University)	Panel Chair: Sallie Yea (La Trobe University)	Panel Chair: Issah Wumbula (University of Melbourne)	Panel Chair: Ramesh Sunam (Waseda Institute of Advanced Study, Tokyo)
	Rochelle Spencer (Murdoch University); Deputy Editor, Development in Practice	Brooke Wilmsen (La Trobe University): Climate Gentrification in the Global South: A Case Study of Tacloban City, Philippines	Sallie Yea (La Trobe University): Loans, Land and Labour: Re-thinking the Place of "the Rural" in Times of Migration in Southeast Asia	Issah Wumbula (University of Melbourne): Decolonizing Human Rights: The Case of the Gambaga Outcast Home Project's Approach to Witchcraft-related Violence in Northern Ghana	Ramesh Sunam (Waseda Institute of Advanced Study, Tokyo): Understanding Youth Entrepreneurship in Agriculture: Insights from Nepal
	Joyce Wu (UNSW); Deputy Editor, Development in Practice	Lana Woolf (Community Powered Responses): Rainbow Resilience Leaving no Fijian behind – 'giving soli' for more inclusive climate and disaster resilience	Franka Vaughan (University of Melbourne): Dual Marginalisation & the demand for dual citizenship in-country: Negotiating 'at homeness' among diasporic Liberians.	Vincent Dogbey (University of Melbourne): 'Creating New Poverty': Dams as Symbols of Development but also as Causes of Human Impoverishment in Ghana.	Isaac Lyne (Western Sydney University): Digital financial inclusion and smallholder farming households: examining the global evidence for impact
	Emily Fintay (Monash University) : Managing Editor, Development in Practice	Awandi Kohilawatta (Monash University): Exploring the interrelations: A rapid review of climate change, financial hardship, and health outcomes in South Asia	Valentina Bau (Western Sydney University): Communicating Social Cohesion in Forced Displacement: a framework for protracted situations of encampment	Kuol Garang (James Cook University): Different Forms of Localised Peacebuilding in South Sudan	Buddhima Padmasiri (Monash University): "Women's Organisations as a Site of Resistance"
	Heloise Weber (University of Queensland); Academic Editor, Third World Quarterly	Thao Nguyen (Meiji University, Tokyo): Carbon Taxes or Carbon Trading Schemes in Developing Countries: Case of Vietnam	Sharon Koshy (ANU): Coping Strategies of Migrant Care Workers in Israel in Times of Terror and Stress	Francis Darko (Flinders University): Internal Migration and Multidimensional Wellbeing: Experiences of Migrants in Regional Ghana	Rivika Bisht (World Vision Australia): World Vision Australia's nutrition-sensitive agriculture in Bangladesh, Laos and Timor-Leste: Review of country experiences and lessons learned
	Pranjali Das (ANU). Winner Best HDR Paper, Development in Practice	Sajal Roy (Australian Catholic University): 'Complexities in Loss and Damage Fund of Climate Change: Global Context	Đức Dũng Trần (NIE, Singapore): Understanding the dynamics of rice-based rural out-migration in the Mekong Delta of Vietnam: Exploring climate change effects for sustainable strategies		Fikri Zul Fahmi (Institute Teknologi Bandung, Indonesia): Centring digitalisation in the debate on rural transformation in the Global South

Morning Tea 10.30-11.00

11.00-12.30 Panel/sessions: Please take 10-12 minutes for presentations, if there are five panellists; and 15 min if four panellists	Decolonizing the Curriculum and the Politics of Global Development	'Roundtable: Does sustainable development need to incorporate a recovery and/ or healing paradigm?'	Reimagining Roads: Critical reflections on the impact of roads on local communities in Africa and the Indian Ocean	Humanitarianism and its discontents	Development, health, and the politics of inclusion
	Roundtable Convenor : Heloise Weber (University of Queensland)	Panel Convenor: Charles Mphande (Victoria University)	Panel convenor: Rochelle Spencer (Murdoch University)	Panel Chair: Anne Decobert (University of Melbourne)	Panel Chair: Jae-Eun Noh (ACU, Brisbane)
	Bina D'Costa (ANU);	Jaya Manchikanti (Victoria University).	Barbara Nattabi (University of Western Australia) ; The public health impact of new roads and related infrastructure in low-and middle income countries'	Vandra Harris Agisilau (RMIT): Humanitarian knowledge, learning and forgetting	Jae-Eun Noh (ACU, Brisbane): Solidarity beyond a rights-based approach to global health
	Sara. C. Motta (University of Newcastle);	Carlisle Richardson (Victoria University)	Rochelle Spencer (Murdoch University): Roads to Development: Gendered experiences of new infrastructure of automobility	Anne Decobert (University of Melbourne), Pyae Phyo Maung (University of Melbourne), Alec Scott (University of Melbourne), Tamas Wells (University of Melbourne): When compliance does harm: exploring tensions between aid bureaucracy and localisation commitments in Myanmar's complex emergency	Joshua Parker Allen (University of Oxford) : How Blind Spots Persist in Ugandan Global Health Science: an analysis of the political-economic context and cultural and epistemic logics of biomedical knowledge production
Norm Sheehan (University of Queensland)	Linje Manyozo (RMIT)	Kwadwo Adusei-Asante (Edith Cowan University): 'Whose Communities? A Critique of "Community" and "Community Engagement" in Road Building Programmes in Sub-Saharan Africa'	Nidhi Wali (Western Sydney University): Understanding the Relationship between Humanitarian and Development Interventions: A Mixed-Methods Systematic Review	Rebecca Nalwanga (University of Melbourne): Able-bodied and Inclusive Development Futures

Day 2

Session

Venue	Venue	Venue	Venue	Venue
Lecture Theatre, Room 122 (Old Arts)	Room 156 (West Arts)	Room 256 (West Arts)	Room 456 (West Arts)	Room 204 (Old Arts)
Nicholas Ferns (Monash University)		Yirga Gelaw Woldeyes (Curtin University): 'Roads and lives: The socio-cultural implications of new roads and related infrastructure in East Africa'.	Jeevika Vivekananthan (Deakin University): Debunking 'humanitarian' crises and disasters (a work in progress)	Moh Imran Khan (SVKM's NMIMS, Mumbai, India): Does access to assistive technologies improve schooling of children with disability? Evidence from India
Denisse Rodriguez (Melbourne University)			Kathryn Harries (Deakin University): Learning from field teams to develop the Field Team Impact Kit (FieldTIK) – a practical, innovative, bottom-	Karen Mejos (World Vision Australia): Evaluation of World Vision Australia's nutrition-sensitive agriculture impact pathways for improved household
Samanthi Gunawardena (Melbourne University)
Martin Weber (University of Queensland)

12.30-1.30 Lunch

1.30-3.00	Ecological Development Futures in Different Research Frames: Complementarities, Tensions, Lessons?	Institutional Learning, institutional adaptation for development	Conceptualising Development: Reflections on the Field	Development transformations in the Subcontinent	Shifting to more localised and equitable aid and development system: Are we there yet?
Panel/sessions: Please take 10-12 minutes for presentations, if there are five panellists; and 15 min if four panellists	Panel convenor: Martin Weber (University of Queensland)	Panel Chair: Jaya Manchikanti (Victoria University, Melbourne)	Panel Chair: Alexander D'Aloia (University of Melbourne)	Panel Chair: Pranjali Das (ANU)	Panel Convenor: Beth Eggleston (Humanitarian Advisory Group)
	Wolfram Dressler (Melbourne University): Agrarian Change and Ecological Dead Zones- the Thresholds of Rural Capitalism	Jaya Manchikanti (Victoria University, Melbourne): A way forward for development in Australia–strengthening the interconnection between community development and sustainable development.	Alexander D'Aloia (University of Melbourne): Southern futures: methodological and analytical implications of South-North transnational currents	Pranjali Das (ANU): Fellowships in Focus: Potentials and Pitfalls to India's Development Landscape	Emeline Siale Iolahia - PIANGO (joining from Fiji)
	Kristen Lyons (University of Queensland) : Climate Crisis as enabler for carbon colonialism 2.0: the case of voluntary carbon markets	Maria Amigo (University of Sydney): Advancing Sustainable Development Goals through Critical Pedagogy: A Case Study of Curriculum Integration at Sydney University	Shadi Rouhshahbaz (Deakin University): 'Exploring the Potential of Live Action Roleplaying Games as Foresight Exercises in International Development'	N Sai Balaji : the Question of Legalising Minimum Support Price from Farmers of India: Mapping the Politics and Understanding the Challenges to AoA-WTO	Saeed Ullah Khan - GLOW Consultants (joining from Pakistan)
	Babet de Groot (University of Sydney) : The Hazardous Waste Trade Regime Complex for Global Plastic Governance	Ujjwal Krishna (La Trobe University): The political economy of research uptake in Australia's international development policy and programming: exploring the individual and organisational levels of decision making	Mak Khan : 'Rethinking Post-colonial knowledge in Development Studies'	Mubashar Hasan (University of Oslo/Western Sydney University): The Paradox of Development: Authoritarianism and Democratic Bricolage in Bangladesh	Puji Pujiono - Pujiono Centre (joining from Indonesia)
	Martin Weber (University of Queensland) : Between the Pluriverse and the Anthropocene: International Political Theory and eco-political ordering imaginaries	Keren Winterford (University of Technology Sydney), Deborah Rhodes (La Trobe University), & Chris Dureau (Independent Consultant): Reframing aid: a strengths-based approach for new development futures.	Poon Soon Cheong (National Graduate Institute for Policy Studies): Chinese Investment in Malaysian Manufacturing: Rethinking the Flying Geese Paradigm	Abdullah Al Zubaer Evan (RMIT): 'Learning, Leading, Living: Citizenship and Capacity among Bihari Youth in Bangladesh'.	Iris Lowe/Leaine Robinson - CoLAB (joining from Fiji)
		Nilanjana Banerjee (Western University Sydney): Driving Sustainability through the Application of Learning Organisation Principles	Bomai Witne (University of Goroka, PNG): Addressing sorcery related violence through peace building in Papua New Guinea	Junaid Amjad (Riphah Institute of Public Policy, Islamabad): Sustainable Solutions: Climate Change Impacts on Pakistan's Economy and Pathways to Adaptation	Suman Ahsanul Islam - inSights (joining from Bangladesh)

3.00-3.30 Afternoon tea

3.30-5.00

Closing Plenary : Decolonising (Anti) Development Futurities with Bina Fernandez UoM), Nilmini Fernando (Griffith University), Sara C Motta (Newcastle University), Bryan Mukandi (University of Wollongong) and Carlos Morreo (Green Agenda)